information in the files of this Bureau concerning [REDACTED] Mr. Pourifoy was requested to advise whether he desired a loyalty investigation regarding [REDACTED] By letter dated June 5, 1948, Assistant Secretary of State John E. Pourifoy advised Mr. Peyton Ford that virtually all of the information in his letter was in the possession of the Department of State at the time of [REDACTED] appointment and that a review of his full record convinced the Department of State of his loyalty to the United States. On April 8, 1949, the Loyalty Form submitted by the State Department on [REDACTED] was returned to the Civil Service Commission with the following notation on the reverse side thereof:

"Information concerning [REDACTED] contained in the files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was furnished to the Department of State by the Department of Justice by letter dated May 20, 1948.

No additional information concerning employee appears in the files of this Bureau and in the absence of a specific request from the employing agency, no investigation will be conducted pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order 9835."

The Honorable Seth W. Richardson and Mr. James E. Hatcher of the Civil Service Commission were notified by letter dated May 5, 1950, that a full field loyalty investigation had been instituted concerning [REDACTED] pursuant to a request of the Department of Justice after consultation with the Department of State. The results of this investigation will be furnished to the Civil Service Commission promptly upon its completion.

On July 18, 1947, a letter was addressed to the Honorable John E. Pourifoy, Assistant Secretary of State, in response to a request from the State Department for an investigation of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

A full field investigation was conducted under the provisions of Executive Order 9835 concerning [REDACTED] as an applicant for the War Department. Reports reflecting the results of this investigation were furnished to Mr. James E. Hatcher, Chief, Investigations Division, United States Civil Service Commission by letter dated April 19, 1948, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit #2. An inquiry concerning [REDACTED] was initiated in 1948 by this Bureau under the provisions of Executive Order 9835. However, this inquiry determined that [REDACTED] had terminated his employment with the Department of State on March 12, 1948. A recent check of the records of the Civil Service Commission fails to indicate that [REDACTED] is or has been employed in the Executive Branch of the Federal Government since his termination from the Department of State. The Loyalty Form received by this Bureau from the Department of State concerning [REDACTED] was returned to the Civil Service Commission on August 19, 1948, bearing the notation that "Information has been received by this Bureau to the effect that [REDACTED] is no longer employed by the Department of State. No further action is being taken in this matter."

By letter dated April 28, 1950, information regarding [REDACTED] was furnished to the Honorable Seth W. Richardson, Chairman, Loyalty Review Board, U. S. Civil Service Commission. A copy of this letter also was furnished to Mr. James E. Hatcher, Chief, Investigations Division, U. S. Civil Service Commission.

In addition to the above, a personal and confidential memorandum dated June 7, 1946, entitled [REDACTED] was directed to Mr. Frederick B. Lyon of the Department of State. 15. PHILIP CARYL JESSUP (No. 15 omitted on "Subpoena" List)

A full field investigation was conducted concerning Philip Caryl Jessup by this Bureau under the provisions of Executive Order 9835 as an employee of the Department of State. By letter dated October 18, 1948, Mr. James E. Hatcher, Chief, Investigations Division, U. S. Civil Service Commission, was furnished copies of reports reflecting the results of the investigation of Jessup. A photostatic copy of the letter of transmittal is attached as Exhibit #51.

By letter dated October 7, 1948, addressed to Mr. Samuel D. Boykin, Director, Office of Controls, Department of State, this Bureau requested the State Department to conduct foreign investigation in connection with the loyalty investigation of Jessup. As a result of a communication from the Department of State dated October 29, 1948, indicating the Department of State deemed it inadvisable to conduct certain foreign interviews, by letter dated November 5, 1948, Mr. Boykin was notified that in view of the information set forth in his letter of October 29, 1948, no further inquiry was being made in the absence of a specific request.

By letter dated April 12, 1950, the Honorable Seth W. Richardson, Chairman, Loyalty Review Board, U. S.
